Women – Violin – 20th Century

A compendium of compositions for violin concertante
by female composers written between 1894 and 2006

extracted from the encyclopedia
„The 20th century violin concertante“

Introduction

The following list is an extraction from my encyclopedia „The 20th century violin concertante“ (ISBN 978-3-00-050001-5) and shows all female composers who composed at least one work for violin concertante in the 20th century.

The data below is presented in the following way:

surname, forname (life dates):

- title of composition 1
- title of composition 2
- etc

The composers are sorted alphabetically by their surnames. Names are always written with the English alphabet, so specific characters from other languages like ä, ç, œ, ù or Cyrillic, Greek, Chinese, etc are left out.

My initial research covered an „extended 20th century“ from 1894 to 2006, including the last years of the 19th century and the first of the 21st century. The listed compositions were written in this period of time.

For more detailed information about the female composers and compositions as well as for male composers and their works for violin concertante in the 20th century, please check my encyclopedia. The book is available as an e-book and can be downloaded free of charge from my website www.tobias-broeker.de. It is also available through the RILM Music Encyclopedias.
